earn up to $3,500

Take advantage of this time-limited opportunity!

This program can reimburse you for the cost of early childhood (and related) college degrees. Earn up to $3,500 per semester while working at least 15 hours per week in a DWS Eligible, licensed early childhood education facility.

Check your Eligibility

Step 1:

Your declared major needs to be listed in your transcript. Qualifying majors include early childhood education, early childhood special education, elementary education and child development or equivalent from an accredited college or university. More information: Office of Child Care Career Ladder policy.

Step 2:

You are only eligible if you are working for an eligible child care program during the entire semester.

Step 3:

If you already work for a child care program at least 15 hours per week, verify that the program is DWS Eligible and licensed by the Utah Department of Health — Child Care Licensing. Eligible license types:

- Licensed Center Providers
- Licensed Hourly Center Providers
- Licensed Out Of School Time Program Providers
- Licensed Commercial Preschool Program Providers
- Licensed Family Providers
- Residential Certified

All license types with descriptions can be found here.

If you need to find a job at an eligible program, below are a few tools available to help your search:

At Care About Childcare you can:

- Search by address or zip code to find child care providers near you.
- Search directly by program if you are looking for licensing information about a specific program to determine eligibility.

Begin a search by entering an address, zip code or the name of a program. Then, use the search filters to narrow down the results to the options that best fit your family's needs.

For questions, contact the Utah Registry for Professional Development (URPD) at urpd@usu.edu or 435-797-2468.

It is important to verify with the director or owner if the program is Department of Workforce Services eligible or not. Only students working for programs that are both licensed and Department of Workforce Services eligible can apply for the pay back program.

Contact the Utah Registry for Professional Development with questions about program eligibility by calling 435-797-2468 or emailing urpd@usu.edu.

You can also select “Yes” on the “Accepts DWS Subsidy” filter to help narrow your search. Please note that there are Department of Workforce Services eligible programs that will not show up in the search if you use this filter, it will only be a partial list of eligible programs.

The Department of Workforce Services job board is a statewide job resource. Many Utah universities have job boards to help students find employment. Child care providers often post jobs on sites such as Indeed.com and Zip Recruiter.

Prepare to Apply for Reimbursement

Step 4:

Save receipt(s) for tuition and fees payments with a complete cost breakdown of how much was paid out of pocket. You will be required to upload a receipt of their tuition and fees payment(s) from your university or college as part of the online application.

Step 5:

Upload a digital copy (official or unofficial) of your transcript listing your declared major and including grades for courses completed during the semester. Only courses receiving a C- or higher will be reimbursed.

Step 6:

If you do not have a URPD (Utah Registry of Professional Development) profile at Care About Childcare, register for a new account. Tutorials and FAQs can be found here. Once you create and log into your account, add your Utah Department of Health — Child Care Licensing Background Check Number on your contact information page. This will link your profile to the program that you are working for. If you do not know this number, ask your supervisor or reach out to Utah Department of Health — Child Care Licensing.

Complete the Application

Step 7:

Log into your Care About Childcare profile and click on the Professional Development icon. Then click on the Scholarship and Incentives icon. Next click on the orange “New” button to begin. Upload your tuition and fees receipt(s) and transcript. You must apply no later than three months after the end of the completed semester. You can apply once per semester.

Set up Reimbursement

Step 8:

You will need to submit information to URPD’s PaymentWorks system, such as an IRS W9 Form and bank account information, to be reimbursed via direct deposit. For more instructions, please click here.

For questions, contact the Utah Registry for Professional Development (URPD) at urpd@usu.edu or 435-797-2468.
